UNDERGRADUATE TRANSCRIPT KEY

Binghamton University operates on a year-round schedule that includes a fall and spring semester, as well as winter and summer sessions.

Binghamton has five undergraduate schools: Harpur College of Arts and Sciences, School of Management, Decker College of Nursing and Health Sciences, Thomas J. Watson College of Engineering and Applied Science, College of Community and Public Affairs. The descriptions that follow explain the transcripts for each of these undergraduate schools and the information noted thereon.

The Graduate School administers all advanced degree programs offered in College of Community and Public Affairs, Decker College of Nursing and Health Sciences, Harpur College of Arts and Sciences, School of Management, Education, School of Pharmacy and Pharmaceutical Sciences, and the Watson College of Engineering and Applied Science. Graduate work appears on a separate transcript.

All transcripts include notations for academic standing (institutional honors, probation, suspension, or dismissal.)

Grades for transfer coursework will be reflected on the transcript with the notation "TR". Transfer coursework will not be included in GPA calculations.

COLLEGE OF COMMUNITY AND PUBLIC AFFAIRS*

*Between July 1987 and July 2006 known as School of Education and Human Development - SEHD. Prior to July 1987 known as School of General Studies and Professional Education | SGSP

September 1981 to Present | To remain in good academic standing, College of Community and Public Affairs (CCPA) students enrolled in degree programs are expected to make satisfactory progress toward the degree. In CCPA satisfactory progress is defined as maintaining a grade-point average of 2.0 in all courses taken (whether or not in CCPA). The grade-point average is calculated on a 4.0 scale. The January 1981 to Present grading policy remains in effect.

Present Grading System | A grade-point average is computed for all courses taken, and includes minus grades. All courses attempted are included on the transcript with an indication of the semester they were taken. CCPA transcripts include notations for academic actions of probation, suspension, or dismissal. Effective Fall 1987, CCPA transcripts reflect academic honors as follows:

Grade	Description	Grade-Points		Grade	Description
